Additional Information Mr. Edgar (Ed) Nield received his Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Notre Dame in 1976. He attended the University of Denver for both his Juris Doctor, completed in 1983, and Master's degree in Business Administration, completed in 1984.

Mr. Nield has been serving clients in Southern California for almost 30 years. He is licensed to practice in California, Colorado and Washington and is admitted before all of the U.S. District Courts in California, the U.S. District Court Western District of Washington, and the Ninth Circuit District Court of Appeal in California. He is a longstanding member of the California Bar Association as well as the Riverside, and San Diego County Bar associations. Mr. Nield has been serving as a mediator for the Riverside County Superior Courts for the past nine years.

Over his extensive legal career Mr. Nield's practice has primarily focused on litigation matters in the areas of personal injury and medical malpractice, public entity liability, civil rights and construction issues. In May 2008, Mr. Nield founded the Nield Law Group, where he continues to practice in the areas of medical malpractice, personal injury and civil rights litigation. Mr. Nield is an experienced trial attorney who has worked on numerous cases to verdict. This has earned him the honor of admission into the American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA). Having practiced and tried cases as both a plaintiff and a defense attorney, Mr. Nield brings a well-rounded approach to mediation. He's able to appreciate the perspective of all sides and to "see the whole playing field."
