serve as a mediator since 2001, and have been retained by several attorneys to privately mediate their disputes. I have served as a mediator for over 75 litigated cases — over 50 within the past two years. I have observed more than 200 mediations. In addition to the matters in which I have served as a mediator, I have also participated in more than 100 mediations for my clients. I have mediated cases involving real property, lemon law, personal injury, construction defect, breach of contract, construction defect and trust estate litigation.
